Louise M. Slaughter to Address Monroe County Bar Association

Congresswoman to speak on Legislative and Policy update on Friday, May 14

ROCHESTER, NY – Louise M. Slaughter, Congresswoman and Chair of the House Rules Committee, is set to speak about legislative and policy update at the Monroe County Bar Association (MCBA) on Friday, May 14 at 12:15 p.m. The event is part of a series of Speakers Forums put on by the Monroe County Bar Center for Education.

At the event, Slaughter is expected to discuss her observations on the current process in Washington for making progress on important legislative issues that we face, as well as items of particular interest to our region such as the high speed rail and economic development.

Since becoming the Chair of the House Rules Committee in January 2007, Slaughter has played a key role in congressional advancements. Most recently, she aided in the passage of the groundbreaking health care reform legislation.

Who: Louise M. Slaughter, Congresswoman and Chair of House Rules Committee

When: Friday, May 14, 12:15 pm – 1:30 pm.

Where: The Rubin Center for Education ~ One West Main Street, 5th Floor

RSVP: Those interested in attending can contact Katie McLean at kmclean@mcba.org.

About the Monroe County Bar Association

The Monroe County Bar Association, originally formed as the Rochester Bar Association, was organized in 1892. Our members are committed to improving the quality and accessibility of justice; promoting respect and understanding of the law; enhancing professional growth, fulfillment, excellence, collegiality and diversity among its members; and serving as a voice for the law profession. The MCBA is actively involved with both the New York State Bar and the American Bar Associations and is considered one of the premier local bar associations in the country.
