The Monroe County Bar Association Adds McLean to Membership & Communications Division

ROCHESTER, NY – The Monroe County Bar Association has added Katie McLean as Membership & Communications Coordinator.

In her new role McLean will assist in the development and distribution of online and print publications, press releases and event advisories. She will be responsible for updating the Association website and will work with staff and vendors to coordinate meetings and events.

Prior to joining the Monroe County Bar Association, McLean worked as the Public Relations Account Coordinator at Roberts Communications. She graduated with a B.A. in Communication and Psychology from the State University of New York at Geneseo.

About the Monroe County Bar Association

The Monroe County Bar Association, originally formed as the Rochester Bar Association, was organized in 1892. What started with just 25 members, has grown to more than 2,200 law professionals in Monroe County, committed to improving the quality and accessibility of justice; promoting respect and understanding of the law; enhancing professional growth, fulfillment, excellence, collegiality and diversity among its members; and serving as a voice for the law profession. The MCBA is actively involved with both the New York State Bar and the American Bar Associations and is considered one of the premier local bar associations in the country.
